BUILDING PARTNERSHIPS FOR GREATER IMPACT

Strategic Consultative Engagement with Safaricom & M-pesa Foundation

From left: Mr. Rogers Abong'o (Executive Director, KCAU Foundation) and Ms. Karen Basiye (Director of Sustainable Business, Social Impact and Foundations)

The Foundation held a strategic consultative meeting with Safaricom & M-pesa Foundation, represented by Ms. Karen Basiye, Director of Sustainable Business, Social Impact and Foundations, and Ms. Everlyne Serro, Senior Manager, Sustainability, to explore collaboration opportunities in digital skills development, innovation, and scholarship support aimed at enhancing student success and expanding access to quality education.

KCAU Foundation Discusses Future Ties with Tetr College of Business

KCAU Foundation in collaboration with Directorate of Partnerships & Collaboration engaged Tetr College of Business to explore a potential partnership focused on entrepreneurship, innovation, and experiential learning. The proposed collaboration seeks to equip students with global business insights, practical entrepreneurial skills, and access to international networks, mentors, and industry experts, advancing the Foundation's commitment to Research & Innovation.

Opportunity: To strengthen innovation and entrepreneurship among students through world-class business training, mentorship, and global exposure.

Strategic Partnerships to Strengthen Graduate Readiness and Digital Skills

KCA University, in collaboration with the KCA University Foundation, engaged the Global Peace Foundation (GPF) in conjunction with Buy Kenya Business Solutions explore strategic partnerships aimed at strengthening student employability, entrepreneurship and leadership development.

- Workforce Ready Program: Opportunities to integrate career, entrepreneurship and employability training into the Foundation's scholarship program.
- Oracle Academy: Potential collaboration to strengthen digital and emerging technology skills.
- Presidential Fellowship Program: Opportunities for KCAU students to participate in mentorship and leadership development.

Partnership Opportunity: The engagement presents an opportunity for KCAU Foundation to strengthen its scholarship support by integrating employability, entrepreneurship, digital skills and leadership development programs for scholarship beneficiaries through strategic collaboration with Global Peace Foundation.

Promoting Inclusive Access to Education

KCA University Foundation engaged the Kenya Sports Federation of the Deaf and the Deaf Golf Federation of Kenya to explore opportunities for supporting deaf scholars through higher education.

Discussions focused on inclusive scholarships, tailored financial literacy programmes, and advocacy initiatives aimed at expanding educational access and empowering students with disabilities. The engagement marks an important step towards building strategic partnerships that advance equity, inclusion, and student success.

Partnership Opportunity: The Foundation looks forward to deepening these discussions and collaborating with partners committed to making higher education more accessible and inclusive for all.

PARTNER STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION

NURTURING LASTING PARTNERSHIPS: KCA UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION AT THE ICPAK FELLOWS COCKTAIL DINNER

The KCA University Foundation, led by Vice Chancellor & CEO, Prof. Isaiah I. C. Wakindiki, PhD., EBS who serves as a director (KCA University Foundation), and Executive Director, Mr. Rogers Abong'o, attended the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK) Fellows Cocktail Dinner, held under the theme, "Beyond the Workplace: Legacy, Leadership and Professional Influence."

As an existing partner, ICPAK's invitation provided an important opportunity for the Foundation and University leadership to strengthen and nurture the relationship, while engaging with ICPAK Fellows and leaders from diverse sectors.

From left: FCPA Ndung'u Gathinji, Rogers Abong'o, (Executive Director, KCA University Foundation), and FCPA Aboo Haji. FCPA Ndung'u Gathinji and FCPA Aboo Haji were among the founding members of the Kenya College of Accounts in 1989.

The evening brought together professionals to reflect on the role of ethical leadership, mentorship, and professional influence in creating lasting legacies and contributing to positive change in society.

For the KCA University Foundation, the engagement formed part of its commitment to partner stewardship and relationship building creating opportunities to maintain meaningful connections, appreciate existing partners, and reinforce shared aspirations around education and professional development.

EVENTS & ENGAGEMENTS

SUPPLIERS AWARD & RECOGNITION BREAKFAST

Beyond recognition, the breakfast reinforced the Foundation's commitment to nurturing meaningful, long-term relationships with stakeholders and creating opportunities for partnerships that extend beyond transactions to shared value and institutional impact.

The KCA University Foundation, in collaboration with the Supply Chain Department, hosted the 2026 Suppliers Recognition Breakfast, bringing together suppliers, University leadership, and staff to celebrate the partnerships that contribute to KCA University's continued success.

Held under the theme "Celebrating Excellence in Partnership," the event provided an opportunity to recognize suppliers whose commitment, reliability, and service contribute to the University's academic and operational excellence. Outstanding suppliers were recognized across several categories, highlighting the value of strong stakeholder relationships and shared commitment to excellence.

PARTNERSHIP IN FOCUS: By celebrating the contributions of its suppliers, KCA University Foundation continues to foster a culture of appreciation, trust, and collaboration laying the foundation for stronger stakeholder relationships and future opportunities for partnership.

A HEART OF GIVING: CELEBRATING PROF. JOSHUA BAGAKA'S LASTING LEGACY

The KCA University Foundation recently honoured Prof. Joshua Gisemba Bagaka, outgoing Chairperson of the Scholarships Committee, in recognition of his outstanding leadership, mentorship, and unwavering commitment to expanding access to education.

The appreciation meeting brought together the Foundation Secretariat, Scholarships Committee, and Scholarship Shortlisting Panel to celebrate Prof. Bagaka's contribution transparent scholarship governance, student support, and academic success.

Beyond his distinguished service to KCA University, Prof. Bagaka is a strong advocate for educational access and student empowerment. He established the Teke la Mwisho Scholarship Initiative in partnership with the Brown Courtney Family, an initiative dedicated to supporting financially challenged final-year students at risk of missing graduation due to outstanding tuition balances. Through the initiative, 20 students have been supported to complete their studies.

A LEGACY THAT LIVES ON

Prof. Bagaka's contribution extends beyond his tenure. Through his leadership, advocacy, mentorship, and personal generosity, he has helped strengthen a culture of giving and reinforced the Foundation's commitment to ensuring that financial circumstances do not prevent deserving students from completing their education.

His legacy is not only measured by the students he has supported, but by the opportunities he has helped create for generations to come.

"A lasting legacy is built by opening doors for others to walk through."
